

I do not believe that it is good for the public if only one company controls the majority, or all, the media in an area. Abuses will happen.